

A Summary of the New World Order (NWO)

By Nolan McFadden

“In testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in 1950, international financier James P. Warburg said: “...we shall have a world government, whether or not we like it. The question is only whether world government will be achieved by consent or by conquest.” (1)

What is the “New World Order?” Who are the proponents of the “New World Order?” Why do globalists want to establish a “New World Order?” What impact would the “New World Order” have on the lives of people? These are just some of the questions we will address in this study. In an article called “New World Order (conspiracy theory)” in Wikipedia the NWO is falsely portrayed as “a conspiracy theory” having its origin in the “Christian right” and “anti-government right” of the twentieth century. (2) In contrast, numerous authors and researchers have found that the term “New World Order” did not have its origin with “fundamentalist Christians,” “conservatives” or “anti-[Marxist / communist / socialist] government” people. Rather, the term is traced back to the writings and speeches of radical leftists, “globalists” (also known as “international socialists”), “humanists,” “progressives,” “Fabian socialists” and “communists.”

Moreover, proponents of the New World Order make it clear in their speeches and writings that they are advocating: 1) “world government” 2) a technocratic “World State” 3) “a true world political authority” 4) a “new global economic order” 5) a global “planned economy” 6) the global redistribution of goods and wealth from developed nations to underdeveloped nations (i.e., global socialism) 7) Global “control” of all human activity as presented in U.N. Agenda 2030 (i.e., totalitarian government). Due to strong opposition, many proponents of the NWO stopped using this term in the 1990’s and began using the term “global governance” in its place.

The NWO is portrayed by globalists and leftists as a necessary social “transformation” and “social evolution” of humanity toward a global “planned economy” for “the global common good.” Whereas, Bible-believing Christians take seriously prophecies and warnings in the Holy Bible concerning the rise of the evil, murderous, global leader called the “antichrist” (also identified as “the beast” in Revelation chapters 13-16) and his evil, totalitarian global government (“kingdom”) of the last days. See Daniel 7:23-28; 9:27, 2 Thessalonians 2:1-15 and Revelation 13-18. Christians regard the emerging NWO as a spiritual deception inspired by the Master Deceiver – the Devil who is using deceived people to prepare the path for the rise of his antichrist and his global tyranny (John 10:10; 8:43-44, Revelation 12-13). Consequently, genuine Christians are anti-world governance and anti-NWO.

The idea of a world government predates the modern era. Yet, global government began to be taken seriously in the teachings and speeches of Professor Johann Adam Weishaupt (1748-1830) in the 18th century. The phrase “new world order” (NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM) had its origin in the Bavarian illuminated Freemasonry of Jesuit-trained Professor J. A. Weishaupt. Sarah Tusa noted, “Inspired by the revolutionary writings of Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, Weishaupt founded the Illuminatenorden [Order of the Illuminati] in 1776. The members of this secret society sought to promote the ideals of the Enlightenment by recruiting civil servants, university professors, the clergy and nobility to infiltrate government.” (3) Weishaupt was an early proponent of a one world government. He wrote, “It is necessary to establish a universal regime and empire over the whole world...” (4)

In the nineteenth century the concepts of a “world parliament” and a “world republic” were introduced. “A world parliament as integral part of a world republic was mentioned first by Pecqueur in 1842.” (5) Marxists and Fabian socialists helped advance the cause via international socialism and world revolution. By the early twentieth century, some key world leaders were beginning to embrace the idea of a “world republic” or “world government.” In 1912 Colonel Edward M. House, a close advisor of President Woodrow Wilson, published Phillip Dru: Administrator in which he promoted

"socialism as dreamed of by Karl Marx." (6) Colonel House founded a study group in 1918 which helped form the organization called the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) in 1921. On December 15, 1922 "the CFR endorsed World Government in its magazine Foreign Affairs. Author Philip Kerr, stated: "Obviously there is going to be no peace or prosperity for mankind as long as [the earth] remains divided into 50 or 60 independent states until some kind of international system is created...The real problem today is that of the world government." (7) In 1932 the book The New World Order by F.S. Marvin was published. It described "the League of Nations as the first attempt at a New World Order. Marvin says, "nationality must rank below the claims of mankind as a whole." (8)

In 1940 another book called THE NEW WORLD ORDER by British socialist H.G. Wells was published. Several years prior to the founding of the "United Nations", in this book Wells advocated: 1) "the World State" in Chapter 12; 2) a "United States of the World" in Chapter 7; 3) a "great synthesis of nations" in Chapter 11; 4) "a secular movement toward a single world order" in Chapter 11; 5) "world community" in Chapter 10; 6) "a new world order" in Chapters 8, 10, 11, 12; 7) "world socialism" in Chapters 8, 10; 8) "world citizenship" in Chapter 12; 9) "new world money" in Chapter 12; 10) "world collectivization" in Chapters 4, 7, 10, 11; 11) "internationalism" in Chapter 12; 12) "socialization" in Chapter 12; 13) "collective unity" in Chapters 11, 14; 14) self-realization" in Chapters 7, 12; 15) "international policeman" term used three times in Chapter 7; 16) "disarmament police" found twice in Chapter 12. On 28 June, 1945 in a speech President Truman endorsed "a republic of the world." (9) In October of 1945 the United Nations Charter was established which became the political actualization of esoteric globalism, world federation and world authority.

This esoteric doctrine of the creation of a "new world order" had a significant impact on the views of world leaders throughout the 20th century. These include President Woodrow Wilson, President Franklin Roosevelt, Vice-President Henry Wallace, President Harry Truman, President Dwight Eisenhower, President Richard Nixon, President George Bush, Sr., President Bill Clinton and President Barack Hussein Obama. Nixon, Bush Sr., Clinton and Obama spoke about the "new world order" in speeches. (10) Secretary of State Henry Kissinger spoke about the NWO in the 1970's. Kissinger wrote about the NWO in his book called World Order (2014), CHAPTER 7 "Franklin Roosevelt and the New World Order" p. 269. (11) The NWO is advocated in Humanist Manifestos I (1933) and II (1973). In Humanist Manifesto II it is called "a world order based on transnational federal government." (12) Joe Biden has spoken and written about the NWO. On 23 April, 1992 an op-ed article by Senator Joe Biden called "How I Learned to Love the New World Order" was published in the Wall Street Journal, (Eastern edition), New York, pg. A13. (13) See also the recent World Government Summit 2022 in Dubai.

In the 1967 Catholic social encyclical POPULORUM PROGRESSIO, in the section "To All Men of Good Will" 83. Pope Paul VI proclaimed, "Delegates to international organizations, public officials, gentlemen of the press, teachers and educators – all of you must realize that you have your part to play in the construction of a new world order..." In the section "Toward an effective World Authority" 78., Paul VI wrote about "the establishment of a world authority." (14) In ENCYCLICAL LETTER LAUDATO SI' globalist, Jesuit Pope Francis (Jorge Mario Bergoglio) wrote in support of "a true world political authority" and establishing systems of governance for the "global commons" (173.-175.) (15) In ENCYCLICAL LETTER FRATELLI TUTTI Pope Francis advocated "a global authority" (105., 172.), "social justice" (164.) and a world "WITHOUT BORDERS" (3., 124.). (16)

The NWO has all the characteristics of the religious and political BABYLON of Revelation 17-18. Check out three excellent books about the NWO: 1) En Route to Global Occupation (1992) by Gary Kah 2) Global Tyranny...Step by Step: The United Nations and the Emerging New World Order (1992) by William F. Jasper and 3) New World Order: The Rise of Techno-Feudalism (2010) by Dennis L. Cuddy.

The emerging New World Order is not merely a "conspiracy theory." The NWO is an "open conspiracy" (as British socialist H.G. Wells described it) and a historical fact. A fully empowered

United Nations as “a true world political authority” capable of creating global taxes and maintaining its own standing army would result in global tyranny. The NWO would destroy our God-given constitutional freedoms and national sovereignty. The NWO would place us under a Lucifer-inspired global tyranny in which all human activity would be under the “absolute control” of a global cabal of technocratic elites. Just say NO to the NWO!
